The Mystical Mirage: An Editorial

Investigating the Business of the Stars

In this editorial exposé, we investigate the multi-million dollar industry of digital mysticism. The proliferation of astrology course scams online has left many feeling betrayed. We analyzed hundreds of lunar astro course reviews and complaints to answer the pressing question: are expensive astro courses worth it? Our findings expose the anatomy of a lunar astro deceptive course, highlighting the severe hidden costs in online astrology courses that drain students' bank accounts. Furthermore, the industry is propped up by the issuance of fake astrology certification, a practice that mocks the rigorous study of authentic Vedic Jyotish.
